THE GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTANTS JOURNAL

Index to Volume XXVII

—A—

Accounting, General
Are Federal Wage-Board Employees Overpaid?, M. Frank Barton & Thomas S. O'Connor, Fall, 34–37.
Current Trends in Financial Management, Frederick Neuman, Fall, 5–9.
Financial Management and/or Resource Management, Ivon W. Ulrey & Ann Pike Ulrey, Spring, 40–45.

Accounting Standards and Ethics
Can Government Auditors Be Independent?, Robert H. White, Winter, 44–49.
Rebuilding Public Trust in Government and Business, Susumu Uyeda, Fall, 56–60.
Regulating the Accounting Profession, James L. Nelligan, Fall, 10–16.
The Report of the Cohen Commission, Alan N. Certain, Spring, 31–39.

AGA Ad Hoc Task Force
AGA Looks at Cost Accounting Standards, Summer, 1–9.

Agro, David T.
White Collar Crime: We Cannot Afford It!, Spring, 53–57.

Asebrook, Richard J.
Attitude Measurement and the Government Auditor, Spring, 46–48

Auditing, Grants
Audit Cooperation, Frank Greathouse, Summer, 16–20.
Expanded Role of the Office of Revenue Sharing in Audits of State and Local Governments, Paul Lundteigen, Fall, 38–44.

Auditing, Internal
A Framework for Auditing Department of Defense Research and Development Programs, Edward F. O'Keefe, Jr., Fall, 17–25.
Attitude Measurement and the Government Auditor, Richard J. Asebrook, Spring, 46–48.
Auditing CETA—An Approach to Intergovernmental Auditing, Frank A. Yeager, Winter, 54–60.
Auditing Program Results, Sidney S. Baurmash, Spring, 15–21.
A Psychological Procedure for Operational Auditing, Robert N. Holt, Fall, 53–55.
Government Program Evaluation Models, Marcus Dunn, Fall, 26–33.
Pros and Cons of Program Evaluation Audits, Anthony A. Schumacher, Spring, 49–52.

Audit Management
Quantitative Criteria for Evaluating Overall Performance of a Government Audit Organization: An Empirical Study, Leonard E. Berry, Summer, 43–52.

—B—

Baierl, Gordon C.
State/Local Government Section, Spring, 58–65.

Barton, M. Frank, (with Thomas S. O'Connor)
Are Federal Wage-Board Employees Overpaid?, Fall, 34–37.

Beard, Larry H.
See Loeb.

Beckerman, Norton S.
The Missing Link: The Planning Portion of the Zero-Base Approach, Winter, 28–37.

Berry, Leonard E.
Quantitative Criteria for Evaluating Overall Performance of a Government Audit Organization: An Empirical Study, Summer, 43–52.

Baurmash, Sidney S.
Auditing Program Results, Spring, 15–21.

Budgeting, General
Fixed Budgets in a Flexible World: The Dilemma of Government Management, James M. Fremgen, Summer, 62–68.
Public Budgeting in the United States: An Historical Perspective, George S. Minmier and Hugh Hughes, Winter, 38–43.

Budgeting, Zero-Base
The Missing Link: The Planning Portion of the Zero-Base Approach, Norton S. Beckerman, Winter, 28–37.
Zero-Base Budgeting in the Federal Government: Some Preliminary Observations on the First Year's Effort, Frank D. Draper & Bernard T. Pitsvada, Spring, 22–30.
Zero-Base Budgeting: Some Implications of Measuring Accomplishments, William C. Letzkus, Summer, 34–42.

—C—

Careers, Accounting
Fitting the Practitioner into Academe, James J. Finley, Fall, 45–52.
Perceptions on an Oversupply of Accountants, Stephen E. Loeb & Larry H. Beard, Winter, 10–14.

Cate, George M.
Federal Accounting: Procedures in Search of a Philosophy, Winter, 1–9.
GAO Systems Approval: Agony and No Ecstasy, Spring, 7–14.

Certain, Alan N.
The Report of the Cohen Commission, Spring, 31–39.

Cost Accounting Standards
AGA Looks at Cost Accounting Standards, AGA Ad Hoc Task Force, Summer, 1–9.

—D—

Dealy, John F.
The Industry/Government Interface: Some Issues of Concern, Winter, 15–23.

Draper, Frank D. (with Bernard T. Pitsvada)
Zero-Base Budgeting in the Federal Government: Some Preliminary Observations on the First Year's Effort, Spring, 22–30.

Dunn, Marcus
Government Program Evaluation Models, Fall, 26–33.

—F—

Fine, Harold R.
Quiet, Please—Old Thinkers at Work, Summer, 21–30.

Finley, James J.
Fitting the Practitioner into Academe, Fall, 45–52.
Fraud
How Can Accountants and Auditors Prevent Computer Fraud?, Patrick O. Gates, Summer, 10–15.
How DCAA Views its Responsibility for Fraud Detection, Frederick Neuman, Spring, 1–6.
White Collar Crime: We Cannot Afford It!, David T. Agro, Spring, 53–57.
Fremgen, James M.
Fixed Budgets in a Flexible World: The Dilemma of Government Management, Summer, 62–68.

—G—

Gates, Patrick O.
How Can Accountants and Auditors Prevent Computer Fraud?, Summer, 10–15.
Greathouse, Frank
Audit Cooperation, Summer, 16–20.

—H—

Holt, Robert N.
A Psychological Procedure for Operational Auditing, Fall, 53–55.
Hughes, Hugh
See Minmier

—I—

Industry and Government
The Industry/Government Interface: Some Issues of Concern, John F. Dealy, Winter, 15–23.

—L—

Letzkus, William C.
Zero-Base Budgeting: Some Implications of Measuring Accomplishments, Summer, 34–42.
Loeb, Stephen E. (with Larry H. Beard)
Perceptions on an Oversupply of Accountants, Winter, 10–14.
Lundteigen, Paul
Expanded Role of the Office of Revenue Sharing in Audits of State and Local Governments, Fall, 38–44.

—M—

McHugh, Joseph A.
Converting the Chimera: Stimulating Research Activities in AGA's Chapters, Winter, 50–53.
Minmier, George (with Hugh Hughes)
Public Budgeting in the United States: An Historical Perspective, Winter, 38–43.

—N—

Nelligan, James L.
Regulating the Accounting Profession, Fall, 10–16.
Neuman, Frederick
Current Trends in Financial Management, Fall, 5–9.
How DCAA Views its Responsibility for Fraud Detection, Spring, 1–6.

—O—

O'Connor, Thomas S.
See Barton
O'Keefe, Edward F., Jr.
A Framework for Auditing Department of Defense Research and Development Programs, Fall, 17–25.
O'Neill, Michael W.
Managing Financial Systems in the Department of Energy, Summer, 53–61.

—P—

Pitsvada, Bernard T.
See Draper

—R—

Report Writing
Quiet, Please—Old Thinkers at Work, Harold R. Fine, Summer, 21–30.
Research
Converting the Chimera: Stimulating Research Activities in AGA's Chapters, Joseph A. McHugh, Winter, 50–53.

—S—

Schumacher, Anthony A.
Pros and Cons of Program Evaluation Audits, Spring, 49–52.
Staats, Elmer B.
A Good Accounting System—Key to Good Management, Fall, 1–4.
State/Local Government
Audit Cooperation, Frank Greathouse, Summer, 16–20.
Audited Financial Statements of Local Government Units—How Comparable Are They?, Ralph B. Tower, Jr., Fall, 61–65.
Evaluation of a Social Service Audit Guide: An Experiment in Federal-State Cooperation, Benjamin Weinmann, Summer, 31–33.
State/Local Government Section, Gordon C. Baierl, Editor, Spring, 58–65.
Systems, Accounting
A Good Accounting System—Key to Good Management, Elmer B. Staats, Fall, 1–4.
Managing Financial Systems in the Department of Energy, Michael W. O'Neill, Summer, 53–61.
Systems, Accounting, Approval of Federal Accounting: Procedures in Search of a Philosophy, George M. Cate, Winter, 1–9.
GAO Systems Approval: Agony and No Ecstasy, George M. Cate, Spring, 7–14.

—T—

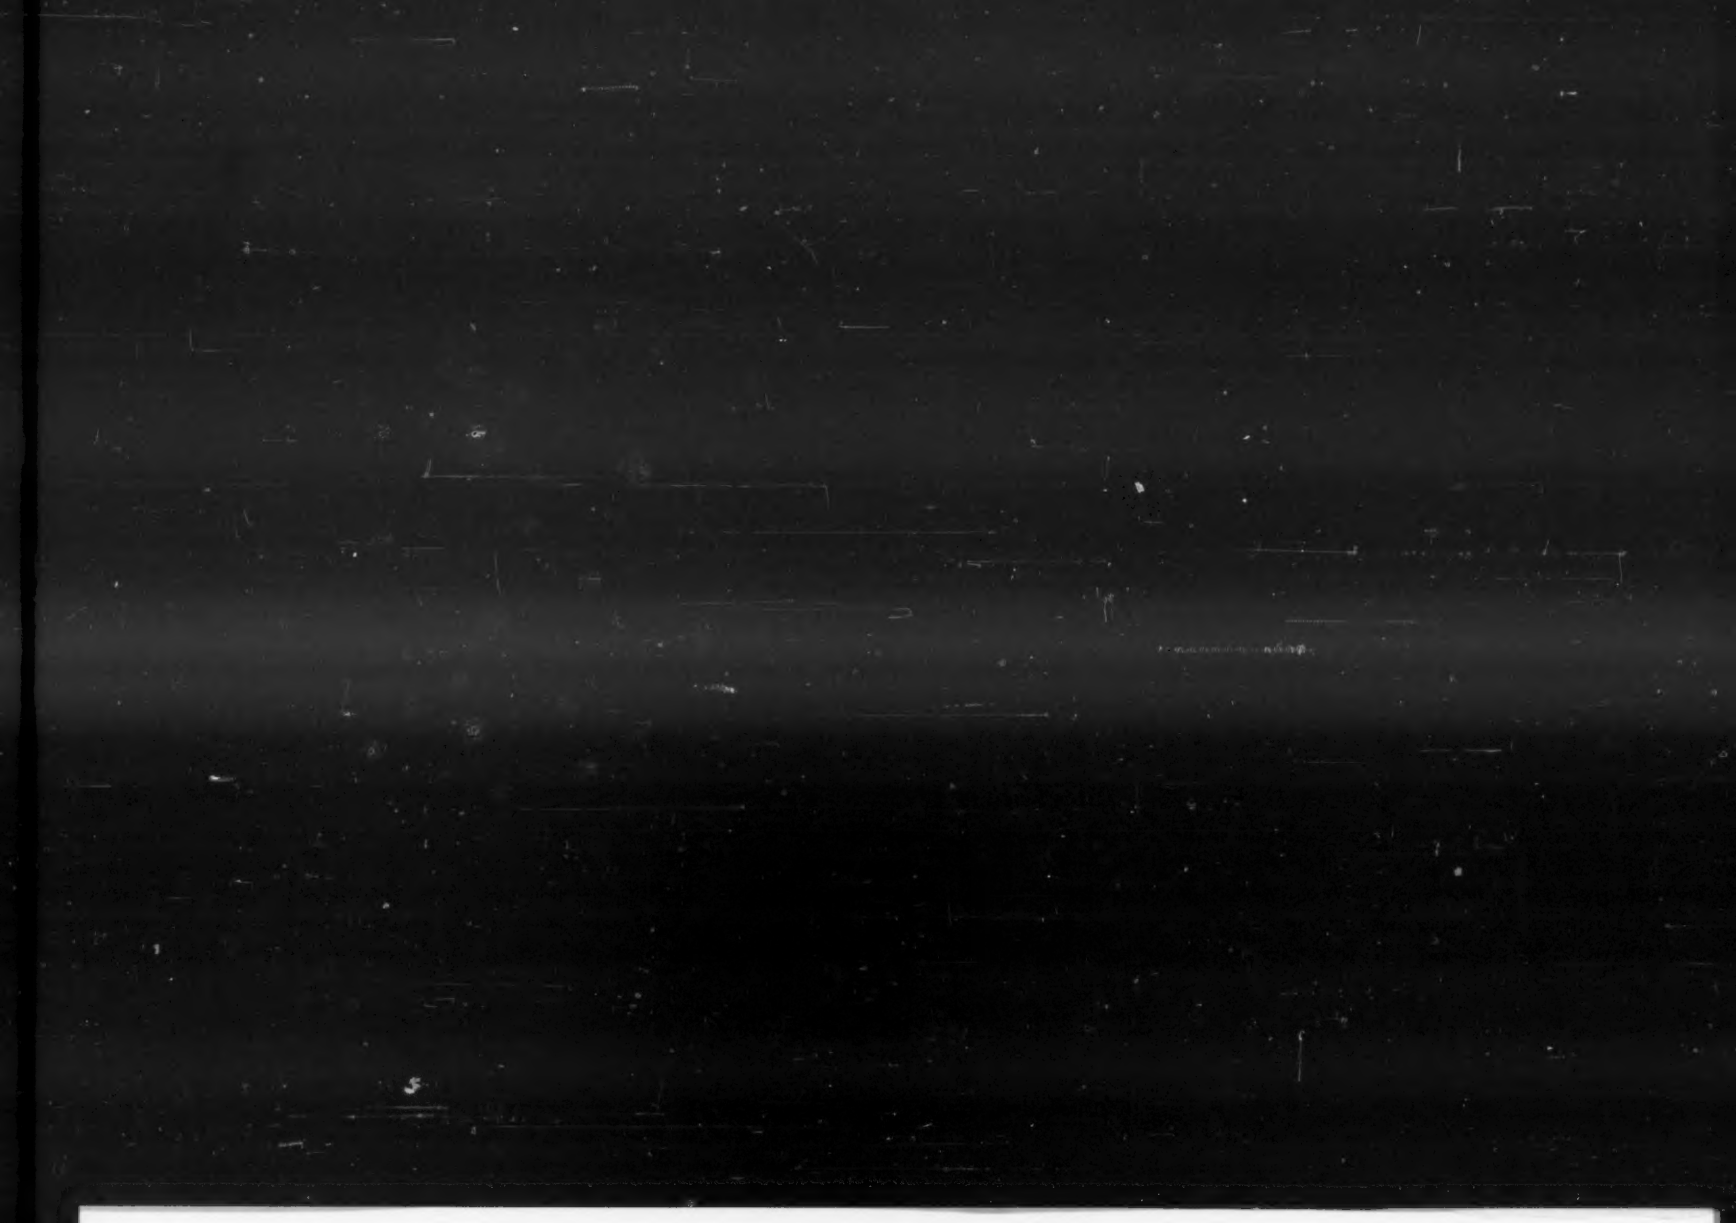
Tower, Ralph B., Jr.
Audited Financial Statements of Local Government Units—How Comparable Are They?, Ralph B. Tower, Jr., Fall, 61–65.

—U—

Ulrey, Ann Pike
See Ulrey, Ivon S.
Ulrey, Ivon S. (with Ann Pike Ulrey)
Financial Management and/or Resource Management, Spring, 40–45.
Uyeda, Susumu
Rebuilding Public Trust in Government and Business, Fall, 56–60.

—W—

Weinmann, Benjamin
Evaluation of a Social Service Audit Guide: An Experiment in Federal-State Cooperation, Summer, 31–33.
White, Robert H.
Can Government Auditors Be Independent?, Winter, 44–49.

—Y—


Yeager, Frank A.
Auditing CETA—An Approach to Intergovernmental Auditing, Winter, 54–60.